

CANADIAN INSTITUTE
FOR MEDITERRANEAN
STUDIES

INSTITUT CANADIEN
D'ÉTUDES
MÉDITERRANÉENNES

It's always better in the Mediterranean.

Let us take you there.

Public Lecture Program 2020-21

Lectures are open to the public and free of charge, and presented online until further

Thursday, October 15 7:00-8:00 p.m.	Jeff Easton, University of Toronto Going Somewhere?: Migration and economic mobility in the Roman West
Sunday, November 8 2:00 p.m.	Carl Knappett, University of Toronto Creativity in Aegean Bronze Age Art (Joint lecture with AIA and CIMS Ottawa)
Sunday, November 15 2:00 p.m.	Mike Sampson, University of Manitoba New Sappho and Digital Forensics: Technology in the service of scholarly integrity
Thursday, November 19 7:00 p.m.	Timothy Harrison, University of Toronto Portraits of a Forgotten Kingdom: Tayanat sculptures and other recent discoveries on the Plain of Antioch in Southeastern Turkey (Joint lecture with CIMS Ottawa)
Thursday, December 10 7:00 p.m.	Amit Rozenblum, Site Conservator, Israel Antiquities Authority Ancient Synagogues in the Galilee and Golan Heights
Thursday, January 14, 2021 7:00 p.m.	Cristiana Conti, York University Intermingling of Messapian and Greek Culture in Puglia, Italy
Thursday, February 11 7:00 p.m.	Carl Ehrlich, York University Topic TBA
March (date TBA) 7:00 p.m.	Antonio Ricci, York University Topic TBA
Thursday, April 15 7:00 p.m.	Nicholas Terpstra, University of Toronto Topic TBA

Lectures will be held online until further notice. Please consult CIMS emails for the link.

For more information on CIMS, please visit <http://sites.utoronto.ca/cims> or contact Alex Gropper at alexgropper@rogers.com.